

Confirmation of employment

Hyejeong Cheon (born 28.7.1992) was employed part-time as teaching assistant at the Faculty of Natural Sciences at NTNU from 1.2.2018-28.2.2019.

Cheon worked with Likevektprogrammet Curie, which is a gender-balance project, aiming to increase the amount of women and men in study programs where there is an unbalance in gender.

Cheons tasks entailed activities such as social gatherings, recruiting activities and communication work.

Hyejeong Cheon has executed her tasks well and we wish her all the best in her future career.

Sincerely,

Faculty of Natural Sciences, NTNU
